12th Anniversary ~ A Gala Celebration!

Make new friends, but keep the old. One is silver, the other is gold.

On April 22, nearly 100 guests enjoyed perfect weather, reconnecting with old friends and making new ones. Ambler Farm was filled with smiling faces as Sally welcomed 15 new members and one volunteer.

May Volunteers of the Month

Stay at Home in Wilton celebrates 12th Anniversary Party Co-chairs Holly Wright–Warren and Karen Birck as Volunteers of the Month. These fabulous ladies worked well together and put together a terrific team. Karen said, “It was great to see our members out and about. Everyone was ready for a party and the mood was festive. The night came together beautifully.” Holly added, “As newcomers to the assignment, we worked really hard to make it a happy evening for all the guests, and we were thrilled that the party was such a success.”

Holly Wright-Warren and Karen Birck

Member and Volunteer extraordinaire Josina Gaus is one of many volunteers who generously helped out at the party.

Wilton High School students Grace Guglielmo, Amelia Essig, Elisabeth Drew helped out at the party.
